3. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Initiatives

PCSO is committed to serving its stakeholders, including its beneficiaries, clients, workforce, and society at large, within the scope of its mandate through comprehensive Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives. These initiatives are aimed at addressing critical societal needs and fostering sustainable development in education, disaster preparedness, relief programs, medical-related causes, environmental awareness, and volunteerism.

The purpose of PCSO's CSR efforts is to create a meaningful and lasting positive impact on society by addressing key areas of need and fostering a culture of compassion, resilience, and responsibility. Through these initiatives, PCSO aims to contribute to the overall well-being and development of its stakeholders, while upholding its mission of service and social responsibility.

In 2024, PCSO turned over a total of 5,241 medical and assistive devices such as wheelchairs, crutches, walkers, oxygen tank, and nebulizer, among others, to various proponents.
